

Victoria Burruss Jarboe Memorial Scholarship

In an endeavor to honor and remember Victoria Burruss Jarboe, her daughters, Paula Weyler Beck '99 and Holly Weyler McKnight '05, have established a scholarship fund in her name. Vicky struggled with mental illness throughout her life which ended when she committed suicide on November 5, 2016. Despite everything Vicky endured and the sacrifices she had to make, her mission in life was to be able to provide her daughters with a Catholic education. Knowing the value their mom put on education, Paula and Holly realized this scholarship would be a lasting testament to her legacy and a way to help others experience the value of a Catholic education.
