

Servant Leadership Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Phil and Suzanne McHugh in 2013 to honor their daughters Colleen '08 and Erin '12 who embraced the mission of Catherine McAuley and acquired and demonstrated many servant leadership skills in their years at Assumption.

The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize an Assumption student who embodies the mission of Catherine McAuley by showing exemplary Christian leadership through service in her school and community.

Criteria:

This $1,000 Servant Leadership Scholarship is awarded to a current Junior who meets the following criteria:

- Demonstrates a commitment to Christian leadership through service opportunities
- Shows increased responsibility throughout her time at Assumption in meaningful service experiences
- Applies herself in the classroom and values academic success is recognized by her peers as a compassionate and caring member of the AHS community
- Above all, she should demonstrate passion and purpose in her service to others
- Applicants should be positive role models both in and outside of school; good representatives of AHS values; and be in good academic and disciplinary standing and not have any significant attendance issues.

Application Process:

The application, two letters of recommendation (one from a faculty/staff member at Assumption and one from the community at large), and typed essay must be completed. The essay should be 500 words responding to the following prompt:

Using a quote by Catherine McAuley that speaks to your passion for service, write about an experience you have had as a servant leader during your time at AHS.
