

Mary Varga Life of Courage Award

Nomination Form

Mary Varga Daugherty is a 1977 graduate of Assumption High School who leads an inspirational life in spite of a brain injury that she sustained after a car accident in 1995. Mary has touched many lives and inspired others with her speeches and her work with the Brain Injury Association of Kentucky. She never gave up in spite of her physical limitations and the obstacles she has had to overcome after her injury. She has always demonstrated tremendous courage, perseverance and spirituality.

A $1,000 scholarship for tuition will be given to a current sophomore or junior who is nominated by a student, faculty/staff member, or administrator. Nominees must demonstrate courage and strength of character in spite of current or past adversity whether by reason of health, disability, family circumstance or otherwise. The ideal candidate will have a positive outlook, sense of humor, and be an inspiration to her classmates and others.
